

Monday, 24 November

11:30-13:00:	Registration and light lunch	Foyer
13:00-13:15:	Welcome – Kai Polsterer and Rafael Lang	Carl Bosch Auditorium
13:15-14:15:	Keynote Talk – Mirella Lapata: "Compositional Intelligence: Coordinating Multiple LLMs for Complex Tasks"
14:15-14:45:	Applications 1 – Alan Akbik: "Towards Sample- and Resource-Efficient Large Language Models"
14:45-15:15:	Applications 2 – Katharina von der Wense: "NLP for Underrepresented Languages and Cultures"
15:15-15:45:	Coffee break	Foyer
15:45-16:15:	Theory 1 – Tiago Pimentel: "Tokenisation, Optimisation, and Inference: How LLMs See, Learn, and Process Language"	Carl Bosch Auditorium
16:15-16:45:	Theory 2 – Sebastian Schuster: "Can coding agents autonomously implement NLP research extensions?"
16:45-17:15:	Theory 3 – Michael Hahn: "The Future of LLMs: From Opaque Models to Reliable Reasoning"
17:15-17:30:	Short break	Foyer
17:30-18:30:	Panel discussion 1: Theory and Applications, Linguistics and ML/LLMs	Carl Bosch Auditorium

Tuesday, 25 November

8:30-9:00:	Registration	Foyer
9:00-9:30:	NLP and Society 1 – Zhijing Jin: “Causal Reasoning for LLMs and Preparations for an Increasingly Automated Society”	Carl Bosch Auditorium
9:30-10:00:	NLP and Society 2 – Daryna Dementieva: “Multilingual and Responsible Language Technologies for Social Good Applications”
10:00-10:30:	Coffee break	Foyer
10:30-11:00:	NLP and Society 3 – Zeerak Talat “NLP for the People or the People for NLP?”	Carl Bosch Auditorium
11:00-11:30:	NLP and Society 4 – Anne Lauscher: “Languages, Values, And Attitudes — On Reflections of Culture in Large Language Models”
11:30-11:45:	Short break	Foyer
11:45-12:45:	Panel discussion 2: NLP and Its Impact on Society	Carl Bosch Auditorium
12:45-13:00:	Closing remarks by HITS Scientific Director Kai Polsterer
13:00-14:00:	Light lunch	Foyer